

February 2012 School Vacation Fun in the Berkshires

Click here to see ski conditions at our downhill and cross-country ski areas.

February 18 & 19, 2012

IS183 Art School of the Berkshires

Stockbridge

413.298.5252

Create Felted Slippers

Come create handmade unique pieces of warm colorful wearable art. Experience the oldest known fiber art in the world. Students will work with beautiful dyed merino wool and learn the process of wet felting over a resist, as well as shaping, fulling and embellishment techniques to craft your own artful cozy slippers. As time allows we will also explore felting over other forms. Tuition: $152.00 $20 material fee included in tuition.

February 20 – 24, 2012

Berkshire Museum

Pittsfield

413.443.7171

www.berkshiremuseum.org

Movie Camp

Be a star of the silver screen! From plot to popcorn, campers write the script, make costumes, play the parts, and operate the cameras. From the start, you'll be a part of the show! Friends and family are invited to the premiere of the finished film on the Museum's big screen. Campers receive a copy of the movie on DVD. Grade 3-6. Call 413.443.7171 ext 10 to reserve your spot.

February 20 – 25, 2012

Berkshire Museum

Pittsfield

413.443.7171

www.berkshiremuseum.org

Berkshire Theater Festival presents performances of Way Out West from 11am – 12pm. Cozy up to our campfire, buckaroos, and discover a whole new view of the world through our concoctions of inspired tall tales, cowboy chronicles, and Native American mythology as we take a hilarious journey back to the wild and wacky west. So, hop on the wagon train and discover the Pony Express (from the horse's point of view), the childhood of Calamity Jane, the Gold Rush, and the expedition of Lewis and Clark.

February 20 – 24, 2012

Norman Rockwell Museum

Stockbridge

413.298.4100

www.nrm.org

Beyond the Frame: Creating Art in 3D

Take a lively interactive look at the art on view and design exciting 3D creations that reach beyond the frame! The basics of pop up art and sculpture will be explored during this special series from 1pm – 4pm that encourage students to think outside the box. Students 7 and up. Take one or take them all! $20 per day, $15 for members.

February 25, 2011

MASS MoCA

North Adams

413.664.4481

www.massmoca.org

Gustafer Yellowgold

The New York Times described this extraordinary combination of music and animation as "A cross between 'Yellow Submarine' and Dr. Seuss." New York Magazine named Gustafer's creator Morgan Taylor Best Kids' Performer, and his song "Mint Green Bee" was a Grand Prize Winner in the Children's Category of the John Lennon Songwriting contest. This might be the best kids' show you ever see. Begins at 11:30am. $6 / $10 for the show + workshop.

February 21, 2012

Colonial Theatre

Pittsfield

413.997.4444

www.thecolonialtheatre.org

Doktor Kaboom!

Creatively blends theatre arts with the wonders of scientific exploration, taking audiences on a compelling journey of spectacular experiments, demonstrations and applications of the physical sciences. Keeping his crowds riveted and rolling with laughter, Docketor Kaboom! is an interactive one-man science variety show suitable for all ages and begins at 2pm. Tickets only $15.