CENTRAL BERKSHIRES
The Central Region’s largest town, Pittsfield, was one of the first state-designated Cultural Districts in Massachusetts. This region is also home to many decadent Gilded Age mansions open for you to explore. If its theater you are looking for this region is rife with talent. It was this area of the Berkshires that both Herman Melville and Edith Wharton called home and the Shakers spent time here as well.

INSIDER TIPS, MUST VISITS & MORE
We asked the locals and they have spoken. Now you can take advantage of what they had to say and discover their favorite Berkshire spots for yourself. Find more insider tips, must visits and more, at berkshires.org.

- Taking the kids and dogs hiking on the trails behind Hancock Shaker Village, packing a lunch and eat it while enjoying the view of the pond. Great for fall foliage viewing.
- Pulling out the picnic gear, heading to a local farmers’ market to shop for goodies and then packing up and enjoying a picnic at Tanglewood, nothing says summer like that. Don’t forget the candles and vino.
- Driving to Mt. Greylock to enjoy the five state view, then off to MASS MoCA for a concert and topping off the day with a beer flight at Bright Ideas Brewing.
- Dressing up and treating myself and friends with a decadent meal at Wheatleigh. Their Mid-summer BBQ is not to be missed.
- Pick your own! In the summer there are all sorts of succulent berries but best of all are the apples and foliage in fall. Be sure to enjoy hot apple cider donut and a wine tasting or a Johnny Mash Cider at Hilltop Orchards & Furnace Brook Winery.
- Loading up the car after a snow dump and heading to one of our local ski areas to enjoy a rare New England powder day. #skiMA

The Berkshires is the perfect getaway spot any time of year! Whether you want outdoor adventure, arts and culture, history and museums, or great shopping followed by an amazing meal, it’s all happening right here.

Outdoor enthusiasts find plenty of four-season fun on Berkshire lakes, rivers, and mountain trails. There are several access points to the Appalachian Trail and, among its many special natural attractions, Berkshire County boasts the tallest waterfall and the highest summit in Massachusetts.

Cultural and arts-minded travelers find much here as well. Long known for its summer music, art, dance, and theater festivals, the Berkshires has a thriving arts scene year-round with performances and exhibitions featuring world-renowned and local artists at venues large and small. There are also world-class museums, interesting historic sites, and exciting event spaces to discover.

No visit to the Berkshires is complete without exploring the main streets and back roads for unique shops and antiques, galleries and coffeehouses, indie bookstores and film screenings, and the local and farm-fresh flavors found in our restaurants, bakeries, and cafés.

Visit tasteberkshires.com to learn more about the artisanal food culture here and what makes this region such a popular destination for food lovers.
At day's end, catch a restorative night's sleep at any of our luxurious resorts, cozy inns, and quiet B&Bs. Spas and wellness retreats revitalize the spirit. Hotels, motels, and campgrounds provide family-friendly comforts. Whether you're traveling solo, on business, as a group, or with family or a partner, you'll find comfortable lodging with everything you need to awaken refreshed and ready for a new day of fun, discovery, and entertainment #intheberkshires!

Plan your Berkshire getaway at berkshires.org.

The Berkshires is comprised of 32 towns and if you were to traverse it from tail to tip, it would take you about an hour and a half. In order to make navigating the Berkshire region simpler, we have created the map above. This map divides our region into 3 parts: NORTHERN, CENTRAL, SOUTHERN. It lists the towns within each division. To further help you in your Berkshire travels, this guide reference each division in each of the listings, allowing you to better understand where each business lies within the county.
