WELCOME TO THE BERKSHIRES

Dreaming of travel? The natural beauty, culture, cuisine, and adventure of the Berkshires in Western Massachusetts await your arrival! Whether you’re looking to plan a weekend getaway for two, a family trip, or potential relocation, this brochure will help you navigate our region.

From the northern tip to the southern tail, you can drive across Berkshire County in about 1.5 hours. The map on page 19—divided into North, Central, and South—will help you gauge distance and travel times as you plan your explorations.

Before visiting any of our 30 towns and two cities, we recommend that you contact each destination for specific information about availability and safety precautions. Carry your vaccination card with you, and please be prepared to follow any safety precautions requested by proprietors and institutions.

Need a little more inspiration? Visit the new berkshires.org for insider tips, scenic drives, our Berkshires Blog, events calendar, and more! We have a new feature that will let you favorite travel ideas and build your own Berkshire itinerary.

Happy travel dreaming and enjoy your stay in the beautiful Berkshires!
The Southern Region is the hub of the Berkshire farm-to-table movement and has a rich antiquing culture. Norman Rockwell lived in this region and spent limitless hours sketching scenes of traditional American life. Enjoy an array of quintessential New England downtowns filled with shopping, galleries, and delicious dining options.
